The bonus

Decide and pay the advance within 24 hours of our meeting, and the first month of maintenance is free.

Why not a discount

Everyone pays the same for the same system. A discount says the first number was padded.

It rewards deciding, not haggling

Hard negotiators don’t get more. Owners who decide get the bonus.

Why 24 hours

Deals rarely die with a no. They die with “let me think about it”.

It’s real

When the window closes, the bonus is gone. A deadline you don’t keep teaches people to ignore deadlines.

THE RULE

Make deciding today easier, never riskier.

1. One month of maintenance, free
2. The price itself never moves
3. Rewards deciding, not haggling
4. A 24-hour window
5. Gone when it closes

Do you reward fast decisions, or discount to close?
